

VA – 3

Directions for questions 1 to 3: The sentences given in each of the following questions, when properly sequenced, form a coherent paragraph. Each sentence is indicated with a number. Choose the most logical order of sentences that constructs a coherent paragraph, and mark the correct sequence of numbers in the box provided below each question.

1. On April 3, however, Australian Prime Minister John Howard and his Chinese counterpart Wen Jiabao oversaw the signing in Canberra of a bilateral nuclear deal.
2. The political message could not have been more vivid in exposing the limitations of the US influence over Australia.
3. Political and not just economic diplomacy fashioned China's early-April agreement with Australia to buy its uranium for nuclear power generation.
4. In March, the US had launched a political level forum for dialogue with Australia and Japan in a bid to checkmate China in the Asia Pacific region.
5. Revealing indeed was the triumph of not only China's strategy but also Australia's autonomy as regards the United States.

Your Answer: 41325 ✖

Correct Answer: 34125 ✔

Directions for questions 1 to 3: The sentences given in each of the following questions, when properly sequenced, form a coherent paragraph. Each sentence is indicated with a number. Choose the most logical order of sentences that constructs a coherent paragraph, and mark the correct sequence of numbers in the box provided below each question.

1. The ease with which the operations were carried out is a reflection of the lax standards of monitoring prevailing in the system.
2. In a way it is reminiscent of a leading group exercising controlling interests in publicly listed companies through a clutch of investment companies having the same postal address.
3. The multiple operations of demat accounts to corner shares in an IPO by individuals acting in isolation or in concert is threatening to blow up to a full fledged scam drawing people of several segments into its vortex.
4. They further buttress their point by saying that it is the antiquated laws of rationing disallowing multiple applications which requires to be re looked.
5. Critics argue that, if there is nothing illegal in holding controlling interest in an enterprise through a web of investment companies, should initiatives to improve the chances of getting more shares in the IPO by operating multiple accounts be termed illegal?

Your Answer: Unattempted

Correct Answer: 31254 ✔

Directions for questions 1 to 3: The sentences given in each of the following questions, when properly sequenced, form a coherent paragraph. Each sentence is indicated with a number. Choose the most logical order of sentences that constructs a coherent paragraph, and mark the correct sequence of numbers in the box provided below each question.

1. Some lucky babies are entitled to a clutch of passports: one born in America to a Lebanese father and a Japanese mother, for example, can have three.
2. Other unfortunates – one born in Norway to a Lebanese mother and unknown father, say – are entitled to none at all.
3. Unless some country takes pity on them, they will join the world's 10 m or so stateless people in legal limbo, acknowledged as citizens nowhere.
4. Many are unable to work legally, travel across borders or use public services.
5. Almost none can vote or stand for election.

Your Answer: Unattempted

Correct Answer: 12345 ✓

Directions for questions 4 and 5: Each of the following questions have a paragraph from which a sentence has been deleted. From the given options, choose the one that completes the para in the most appropriate way.

Freedom and rights are so fundamental that they become dangerous words to use. ____
People defend controversial practices as tobacco manufacture and sale, hunting animals etc., on the grounds that we are free people who have the right to enjoy whatever pleasures we choose. Whatever the merits of these arguments, we should be careful of taking them at face value.

☐ a) Western democracy is arguably built upon the twin pillars of individual freedom and unassailable rights.

☒ b) If someone wants to legitimize what they are doing, even if it is harmful, they will almost certainly try to describe their actions in terms of freedom and rights. (Correct Answer - ✓)

☐ c) Every person is entitled to the right to personal freedom and privacy.

☒ d) The language of rights and freedom is used to disguise all kinds of injustices and wrongdoings. (Your answer - ✗)

Directions for questions 4 and 5: Each of the following questions have a paragraph from which a sentence has been deleted. From the given options, choose the one that completes the para in the most appropriate way.

____ Ice – in the form of sea ice, glaciers, ice caps and snow ice, – reflects some of the sun’s heat, cooling the planet. In contrast, the dark surfaces of the open sea and snow-free ground absorb heat. As ice disappears, the earth retains more of the sun’s heat and as the earth warms up more ice melts, through this feed-back process, declining ice strengthens global warming.

- ☐ a) Ice holds large fresh water supplies and is a vital part of the ecosystem.
- ☐ b) Melting ice is the cause of prime concern today.
- ☐ c) The impacts of melting ice will reach far beyond the Arctic, affecting global climate and biodiversity.

☒ d) Ice plays a critical role in shaping our planet’s environment. (Your answer - ✓)

Direction for questions 6 to 10: Fill in the blanks in the passage below, with the most appropriate word from among the options given for each blank. The right words are the ones used by the author. Be guided by the author’s overall style and meaning when you choose your answer.

The use of government advertising as a tool for political (6) , especially during election time, has been a key (7) in many democracies. Given the role of the state in India as a controller of the (8) of many publications dependent on advertising revenue, it is inevitable that in the name of (9) information about government performance and programmes, many a regime makes use of official advertising to drive home politically loaded messages, focus on personalities and give the (10) that huge allocations of budgetary resources and framing of policies and schemes are solely because of particular leaders.

- ☐ a) party line

☒ b) propaganda (Your answer - ✓)

- ☐ c) promotion
- ☐ d) proselytism

Direction for questions 6 to 10: Fill in the blanks in the passage below, with the most appropriate word from among the options given for each blank. The right words are the ones used by the author. Be guided by the author's overall style and meaning when you choose your answer.

The use of government advertising as a tool for political (6) , especially during election time, has been a key (7) in many democracies. Given the role of the state in India as a controller of the (8) of many publications dependent on advertising revenue, it is inevitable that in the name of (9) information about government performance and programmes, many a regime makes use of official advertising to drive home politically loaded messages, focus on personalities and give the (10) that huge allocations of budgetary resources and framing of policies and schemes are solely because of particular leaders.

- ☐ a) anxiety
- ☐ b) apprehension
- ☒ c) concern (Your answer - ✓)
- ☐ d) trepidation

Direction for questions 6 to 10: Fill in the blanks in the passage below, with the most appropriate word from among the options given for each blank. The right words are the ones used by the author. Be guided by the author's overall style and meaning when you choose your answer.

The use of government advertising as a tool for political (6) , especially during election time, has been a key (7) in many democracies. Given the role of the state in India as a controller of the (8) of many publications dependent on advertising revenue, it is inevitable that in the name of (9) information about government performance and programmes, many a regime makes use of official advertising to drive home politically loaded messages, focus on personalities and give the (10) that huge allocations of budgetary resources and framing of policies and schemes are solely because of particular leaders.

- ☐ a) providence
- ☐ b) fortunes (Correct Answer - ✓)
- ☐ c) intervention
- ☐ d) manifestation

Direction for questions 6 to 10: Fill in the blanks in the passage below, with the most appropriate word from among the options given for each blank. The right words are the ones used by the author. Be guided by the author's overall style and meaning when you choose your answer.

The use of government advertising as a tool for political (6), especially during election time, has been a key (7) in many democracies. Given the role of the state in India as a controller of the (8) of many publications dependent on advertising revenue, it is inevitable that in the name of (9) information about government performance and programmes, many a regime makes use of official advertising to drive home politically loaded messages, focus on personalities and give the (10) that huge allocations of budgetary resources and framing of policies and schemes are solely because of particular leaders.

☐ a) disseminating (Correct Answer - ✓)

☒ b) dissipating (Your answer - ✗)

☐ c) frittering

☐ d) dissimulating

Direction for questions 6 to 10: Fill in the blanks in the passage below, with the most appropriate word from among the options given for each blank. The right words are the ones used by the author. Be guided by the author's overall style and meaning when you choose your answer.

The use of government advertising as a tool for political (6), especially during election time, has been a key (7) in many democracies. Given the role of the state in India as a controller of the (8) of many publications dependent on advertising revenue, it is inevitable that in the name of (9) information about government performance and programmes, many a regime makes use of official advertising to drive home politically loaded messages, focus on personalities and give the (10) that huge allocations of budgetary resources and framing of policies and schemes are solely because of particular leaders.

☐ a) intuition

☐ b) inkling

☐ c) conviction

☒ d) impression (Your answer - ✓)

Directions for questions 11 and 12: There are two blanks in each of the following sentences. From the pairs of words given below each sentence, choose the pair that fills the blanks most appropriately.

India is in a position today to _____ access to its big market to bring down _____ within the subcontinent and between South Asia and the extended neighbourhood.

☒ a) liberalize . . . blockade (Your answer - ✖)

☐ b) manumit . . . limitations

☐ c) leverage . . . barriers (Correct Answer - ✔)

☐ d) lacerate . . . restrictions

Directions for questions 11 and 12: There are two blanks in each of the following sentences. From the pairs of words given below each sentence, choose the pair that fills the blanks most appropriately.

It was a marriage made in _____; it's a divorce set in _____.

☐ a) terrain . . . subterfuge

☐ b) paradise . . . fantasy

☐ c) terror . . . eternity

☒ d) heaven . . . hell (Your answer - ✔)

Directions for question 13: In the following question, the word at the top is used in four different ways, A to D. Choose the option in which the usage of the word is INCORRECT or INAPPROPRIATE.

LABOUR

☐ a) According to economics, labour is one of the factors of production.

☐ b) His long and arduous labour was not in vain.

☐ c) The doctors tried to help Renu in her difficult labour.

☒ d) Rex was labouring with a misapprehension that he was the strongest dog in the locality. (Your answer - ✔)

Directions for questions 14 and 15: Each of the following questions presents 4 statements of which 3, when placed in appropriate order would form a contextually complete paragraph. Pick the statement that is not part of that context and indicate the number corresponding with it in the box provided below each question.

1. Britannia Industries limited(BIL) has entered the packaged Indian bread category with the introduction of whole wheat 'kulchas', according to company sources.
2. Admitting that it has been a late entrant to the packaged kulcha category, sources close to the development said that it "needed a strong hook" to enter a segment already well penetrated by other key Delhi bread bands.
3. Encouraged by its run in Delhi, BIL is now planning to take the product to other markets, including Bengaluru.
4. The Kulcha is a leavened flat Indian bread, normally made using flour or maida even at home.

Your Answer: 4 ✓

Directions for questions 14 and 15: Each of the following questions presents 4 statements of which 3, when placed in appropriate order would form a contextually complete paragraph. Pick the statement that is not part of that context and indicate the number corresponding with it in the box provided below each question.

1. Zika virus is an emerging concern as day temperatures rise across India.
2. With one million deaths and 700 million infections, the mosquito is the "most dangerous creature on earth," say entomologists.
3. "Aedes mosquito is one of the most effective disease-spreading vectors in the world, and one of the most aggressive, according to renowned virologists
4. And of the particular genus, out of the 3,50,000 variants in the world, Aedes is primarily responsible for spreading the zika virus.

Your Answer: 1 ✓