

Directions for questions 1 and 2: Identify the incorrect sentence or sentences.

- a. It was 5.30 am, and the moon still lighted the sky above Corbett National Park.
- b. We are staying at the forest rest-house at Gairal on the bank of the Ramganga river.
- c. We had spent our mornings bird-watching and the afternoons splashing in the river.
- d. Each day, we were greeted with a fresh set of pug-marks leading down to the water edge.

☐ a) a, b and d (Correct Answer - ✓)

☐ b) a and d

☐ c) Only a

☐ d) Only c

Directions for questions 1 and 2: Identify the incorrect sentence or sentences.

- a. On yet another trip to the wilds, I travelled to Kaziranga National Park.
- b. We were visiting shortly after the monsoon, when the park was at its green, some places almost knee-deep in water.
- c. Elephant-back was the best way to see the rhinos and so we lumbered off through the tall grass one early morning.
- d. The scene before us was extraordinary – rhinos dotted the landscape, white egrets perched on their backs daintily.

☐ a) a and b

☐ b) Only a

☐ c) b and c

☐ d) a, b and d. (Correct Answer - ✓)

Directions for questions 3 to 5: The sentences given in the following questions, when properly sequenced, form a coherent paragraph. Each sentence is indicated with a number. Choose the most logical order of sentences that constructs a coherent paragraph and indicate the correct sequence of numbers in the box provide below each question.

1. More recently, the regulator has turned its attention to BskyB's stranglehold on televised sports: the new challenger which the regulator is helping break into that market is none other than BT.
2. Orchestrating a similar battle of the titans in Mexico, while clearing a path for other contenders, is the best way to bring about the competitive revolution the country's communications industries need.
3. Consumers now enjoy a broad choice of competitively priced telecom bundles.
4. In 2006 Britain forced BT, the former state telecoms monopoly, to create an arms-length subsidiary to run its network infrastructure and sell access to new entrants at fair prices.
5. One of the biggest new entrants to the market is BskyB, Rupert Murdoch's pay-TV giant.

Your Answer: Unattempted

Correct Answer: 43512 ✓

Directions for questions 3 to 5: The sentences given in the following questions, when properly sequenced, form a coherent paragraph. Each sentence is indicated with a number. Choose the most logical order of sentences that constructs a coherent paragraph and indicate the correct sequence of numbers in the box provide below each question.

1. The ongoing demographic and socio-economic trends threaten to weaken the family's traditional role in the care of the elderly.
2. As the number of elderly who may need care rises, the increased work responsibilities of women, who have historically been the primary caregivers for the frail elderly, may become incompatible with their care giving responsibilities.
3. Increases in longevity and declines in fertility have raised the number of elderly Americans over a period of time.
4. How families respond to these pressures will have most important implications for retirement and long-term care policies.
5. Over the past generation, women have assumed a much larger role in the labour market, limiting the amount of time they are able to devote to other responsibilities, including caring for their frail parents.

Your Answer: Unattempted

Correct Answer: 13254 ✓

Directions for questions 3 to 5: The sentences given in the following questions, when properly sequenced, form a coherent paragraph. Each sentence is indicated with a number. Choose the most logical order of sentences that constructs a coherent paragraph and indicate the correct sequence of numbers in the box provided below each question.

1. To offset the extra liquidity, the bank 'sterilised' the increase in foreign reserves by selling securities to banks.
2. A pegged exchange rate also cramps the RBI's room to raise interest rates, because that would attract yet more capital.
3. Until March the RBI, through its various policies, was attempting to hold the rupee down.
4. The snag is that sterilisation is expensive because the RBI has to pay much more on the bonds it issues to mop up liquidity than it earns on dollar reserves.
5. The large amounts of dollars it was forced to buy, however, were fuelling excessive growth in the money supply and hence inflation.

Your Answer: Unattempted

Correct Answer: 35142 ✓

Directions for questions 6 and 7: The following questions have a paragraph from which the last sentence has been deleted. From the given options, choose the one that completes the paragraph in the most appropriate way.

Almost everyone praises education, but consensus dissolves over who should pay for it. This dilemma runs deep in our history, back to the founders who led the American Revolution and designed a more participatory form of government, known as a republic. They declared that Americans needed more and better education to preserve their state and national republics from relapsing into tyranny. A governor of Virginia, William H. Cabell, asserted in 1808 that education "constitutes one of the great pillars on which the civil liberties of a nation depend." _____

- ☐ a) More than a mere boon for individuals, education must teach citizens to distinguish worthy from treacherous candidates for office—lest the republic succumbs to those reckless demagogues or would-be aristocrats.
- ☐ b) To sustain their republics, American leaders should reform the morals and manners of the nation's citizens.
- ☒ c) More than a mere boon for individuals, education is a collective, social benefit essential for free government to endure. (Correct Answer - ✓)
- ☐ d) More than a mere boon for individuals, education should produce well-informed protectors of republican government.

Directions for questions 6 and 7: The following questions have a paragraph from which the last sentence has been deleted. From the given options, choose the one that completes the paragraph in the most appropriate way.

We are increasingly told that the inflow of capital — particularly the foreign direct investment (FDI) variety — increases employment levels and contributes to economic growth. In a rare interview given to The Wall Street Journal in May, Prime Minister Narendra Modi reinforced the role of FDI for India: ‘To set a strong foundation for sustainable growth, we have run the most prudent macro-economic administration in decades, reducing fiscal and current account deficits. We have made India a destination which welcomes capital by liberalising foreign-direct investment policy, increasing the ease of doing business.’ Recently, the government further relaxed the FDI policy. _____

- ☒ a) An FDI mania appears to have gripped our policymakers. (Correct Answer - ✓)
- ☐ b) However, there are no a priori reasons for favouring foreign investment over domestic investment under normal economic conditions.
- ☐ c) But foreign investment is an option in the short term.
- ☐ d) A probable positive consequence of foreign investment is the inflow of new technology and its subsequent diffusion.

Directions for questions 8 and 9: In each question, the word at the top is used in four different ways, lettered A to D. Choose the option in which the usage of the word is INCORRECT or INAPPROPRIATE.

PITCH

- ☐ a) We had little hope of getting the contract as we were pitched against well-established companies.
- ☐ b) The protestors pitched their tent outside the secretariat.
- ☐ c) You must have a ear for rhythm and pitch to be a successful musician.
- ☒ d) We all pitched a day's salary to help the Tsunami victims. (Correct Answer - ✓)

Directions for questions 8 and 9: In each question, the word at the top is used in four different ways, lettered A to D. Choose the option in which the usage of the word is INCORRECT or INAPPROPRIATE.

RIGHT

- ☐ a) Driving on the right side of the road is the normal practice in America.
- ☒ b) They are right proud of their children. (Correct Answer - ✓)
- ☐ c) I had been directed to turn right at the intersection.
- ☐ d) Arathi plays the violin with a band but she is a playback singer in her own right.

Directions for question 10: The following question presents 5 statements of which 4 when placed in appropriate order would form a contextually complete paragraph. Pick the statement that is not part of that context and indicate the number corresponding with it in the box provided below the question.

1. The Indian Administrative Service (IAS) being at the cutting edge, where political and professional executives interact, has had to bear the brunt of the changes.
2. Since IAS officers enjoy special privileges and protection under the constitution citizens expect them to remain accountable to society at large.
3. The vastly changed political environment was uppermost on the minds of the probationers at the golden jubilee get together of the National Academy of Administration
4. The biggest regret many retired officers have is of not having done enough to reduce the enormous power that clerks, assistants and inspectors wield in the system and who have become the real permanent civil service.
5. Civil servants are increasingly facing a conflict between their accountability to the government of the day and their accountability to society at large.

Your Answer: Unattempted

Correct Answer: 4 ✓

Directions for questions 11 and 12: Each of the following question presents 4 statements of which 3, when placed in appropriate order would form a contextually complete paragraph. Pick the statement that is not part of that context and indicate the letter corresponding with it in the box provided below each question.

1. The auction recorded sales of over 86 lakh and the collection of books on auction was curated around the theme of the British Raj in India.
2. The books are collected from antique book dealers and individual collectors and allow more people to engage with history in an enjoyable manner.
3. The six-part series was part of story LTD's first online auction of antiquarian books.
4. Oriental Scenery, the Daniells' collection of 144 aquatints across six parts, was the marquee piece in a recent auction of antiquarian books.

Your Answer: Unattempted

Correct Answer: 2 ✓

Directions for questions 11 and 12: Each of the following question presents 4 statements of which 3, when placed in appropriate order would form a contextually complete paragraph. Pick the statement that is not part of that context and indicate the letter corresponding with it in the box provided below each question.

1. Circuses are manifestations of our insatiable desire to be entertained.
2. In reality, what they see is a caricature of wilderness.
3. Though the argument that circuses give children the opportunity to see animals that are exotic and special may be true, this arena encourages children to view animals in a decontextualised and subordinate way.
4. How can children value an animal as wild and supreme when it performs, no matter how impressively, simply for giggles?

Your Answer: Unattempted

Correct Answer: 1 ✓

Directions for questions 13 and 14: There are two blanks in each of the following sentences. From the pairs of words given below, choose the pair that fills the blanks most appropriately.

Despite being extremely _____, he is a very _____ person.

☐ a) pecunious . . . unassuming (Correct Answer - ✓)

☒ b) diffident . . . reticent (Your answer - ✗)

☐ c) impoverished . . . self-effacing

☐ d) erudite . . . prudent

Directions for questions 13 and 14: There are two blanks in each of the following sentences. From the pairs of words given below, choose the pair that fills the blanks most appropriately.

His rise to fame was not by sheer accident, he is known to have _____ in his childhood and youth and eventually became a _____.

☐ a) toiled . . . rabble-rouser

☒ b) lucubrated . . . luminary (Your answer - ✓)

☐ c) reminisced . . . recluse

☐ d) vegetated . . . revolutionary

Directions for question 15: The following sentence has a blank. From the given choices, pick the idiomatic expression that fits the blank appropriately.

Most Indian software professionals in the U.S. visit India often _____.

☒ a) to make the best of both worlds (Your answer - ✓)

☐ b) to put the cat among the pigeons

☐ c) to kill two birds with one stone

☐ d) to let the cat out of the bag